

Institute of International Relations and Network on Humanitarian Action (NOHA)

would like to invite to the workshop on

The rights of foreigners in Poland

The workshop will be conducted by lieutenant colonel Gerard Bah – Human Rights Special Adviser to the Police Commissioner in Kielce. It will be a unique chance to discuss very important issues such as racism, hate speech, discrimination, and stereotypes. After the workshop, there will be time for Q&A session with lieutenant colonel Bah.

The workshop will take place on November 17th at 3 p.m. in room 1.3, Collegium Iuridicum II (ul. Lipowa 4) - the same building as the University of Warsaw Library.

Seminar will be translated into English.
